37th EDITION

FASHION WEEK OF AUTOMOTIVE DESIGN

The 37th edition of the Festival Automobile International, recognized as the Fashion Week of Automotive Design, will be held in Paris in the prestigious Hôtel National des Invalides. After a "digital" edition in 2021, due to the sanitary situation, the event will open its doors to the public and designers from all over the world and will celebrate automotive design and art.

It will be the major automotive event of January 2022.

True to its original concept, the Festival will reward the talent of the actors and personalities of the automotive sector through Grand Prizes awarded by an exceptional Jury. With a program including several highlights, it will be honour the most beautiful projects and achievements through an election and an exhibition open to all.
